

Opening of Atelier Acanthes: a creative approach to furniture upholstery!

Period seating with a strong personality.

Furniture is a fundamental element of interior design. It is essential to give it all its potential of expression allowing it to play an active part in the home decor. According to Laurence Fort, artisan upholsterer - founder of Atelier Acanthes, the objective is to offer the services of a traditional furniture upholsterer strongly committed to a contemporary and creative approach. The idea rests on a real partnership with the client resulting in a unique creation reflecting the client's desires and personality. Period seating is synonymous of style and durability to be passed on from generation to generation. Atelier Acanthes brings it a vibrant and personal dimension making your seat truly unique.

A passion..... a know-how!

After spending over 12 years researching the subject, Laurence Fort realizes her passion for period furniture and becomes a furniture upholsterer specializing in seats. A graduate from Ecole Gregoire Ferrandi, trained at the school, her love of shapes, materials, finishing touches and her current vision for interior design give her the powerful will to open a creative upholstery workshop tuned to her clients wishes.

Custom services.

Atelier Acanthes offers the following services:

- Restoration of seats "having seen better days" with a particular attention as to the choice of fabrics, rebuilding materials and decorative elements which will give a new personality to your seat.
- Original and unique creations from new frames.

In the strictest respect of tradition and quality

Atelier Acanthes designs its seats in keeping with traditional techniques (webbing, springs, quilt hair, stitched trimmings,...). Laurence Fort gives particular attention to the choice of fabrics and finishing touches by using the best suppliers and designers.

The services of Atelier Acanthes will be of interest to:

individuals and businesses wishing to present their furniture in a creative, innovative light, best suited to their own personality and culture. Atelier Acanthes looks also at establishing partnerships and offering its services to interior design architects within the framework of their projects and to all the players in the field of interior decorating.
